GAMING LAW AND SPORTS BETTING

Gaming is experiencing global expansion. This distinctive course, the first of its kind in Europe, offers participants advanced education on legal and regulatory matters concerning the gaming and sports betting industry worldwide.

Led by esteemed instructors and guest speakers, including distinguished professors in Gaming Law, former and current regulators, and industry-leading executives, the course ensures a high-caliber learning experience.

The program is divided into two Bootcamps. The first Bootcamp delves into all aspects of Gaming Law, while the second focuses in on Sports Betting. Spread over six weeks and conducted part-time with sessions three times a week, totalling 35 sessions and 45 hours, this course allows flexibility as each Bootcamp can be attended independently.

WHO WILL BENEFIT

The course is aimed at Gaming and Sports Betting executives, lawyers, judges, consultants, and other professionals or agents who practice or are willing to practice in the field.

BENEFITS

Professionals in Gaming Law and Sports Betting require specialized qualifications. This course presents an opportunity to delve deep into the varied facets of this particular and rapidly evolving industry.
